three grandchildren: Nicola Burrow and Rosie and Lily Brock.

Frank worked for RCA/General Electric in Camden, New Jersey for 35 years specializing in radar and electronic communication systems designed for military surveillance, satellite applications and the NASA space program, including several Apollo missions.

He was an avid race car enthusiast, driver and mechanic. For many years, Frank raced and maintained a red 1959 Fiat Abarth Record Monza race car. Frank was the 5th founding member of the South Jersey Region of the SCCA (Sports Car Club of America).

The family will hold a Memorial service at a future date. Burial will be in the Highland Cemetery in Hopewell, New Jersey. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the Hopewell Presbyterian Church in Hopewell, New Jersey.
